

Basic Detail Report

---

fragment

Date

1400-1360 BCE

Medium

Glass

Description

Translucent medium blue glass with trails of opaque white, opaque yellow and turquoise, bubbly, dull surface; core-formed, trail-decorated and tooled. Fragment preserves thickened, flattened rim with rounded edge which bends sharply in to wide cylindrical neck preserving alternating trails of yellow, turquoise, white, turquoise, yellow, white, all of which have been dragged up toward the rim in a festoon pattern and marvered into the surface, the rim was subsequently formed and a thick trail of white added to highlight the edge.

Dimensions

Overall H: 2.3 cm

Object number

59.1.31